

A TWIST IN THE TALE

BY Sonni Moorley 4R

As Sam and Ollie walked along the road in the shadowe night they saw what looked like an abandoned house. Sam was talking about motorbikes because he was obsessed with them. "Hey, Ollie, lets check this house out" Sam said. "You go in but I'm not" Ollie said. "Scarley cat" Sam muttered. Sam stepped stepped into the house and the floor creaked. Sam saw a rusty and old motorbike.

Sam had an idea, he would ask his dad if he could use his workshop to repair the motorbike. The next day, he asked his dad and his dad said yes. He painted the motorbike green. Ollie knocked on the door, "Sam, do you want to play football", sorry Ollie, I'm doing homework".

Ollie was disappointed but he went home. When Sam got back to work, he found a note under the seat. It said,
use sand instead of petrol,
find an emerald to unlock the secret.

Sam went to a beach and collected some sand and in the sand he found an emerald, what luck! On the way to the workshop, Sam saw a poster, it read,
public motorbike race,

"I'm going to enter, Sam said. He put the sand in, it worked! He put the emerald in a wheel and a button appeared. Sam pressed it and suddenly the motorbike started to talk to him!

Only use button once.

Sam started to realize this wasn't just an old, rusty, normal motorbike, more like one from the future! He told Ollie about the race. "You don't even have a motorbike!" Ollie said. "Yes I have" Sam said. He showed Ollie the motorbike. "Wow!" Ollie said.

The next day, the race was on! Sam was nervous and excited at the same time. Ollie came to watch the race. Come on, Sam! Sam's spirits went up! The race started! A sharp turn was coming up. Sam was struggling, he was losing by a mile. Suddenly, he remembered the button. He pressed it. He felt taller and he looked down and, was it true, it was, he was flying! He zoomed past all the corners and racers and he won the race! The race was over and everyone was applauding Sam! After the race, Ollie wanted to have a go but Sam remembered what the motorbike said, only use once. The motorbike talked again, you have used wisley, you can use again. Ollie had a go and the trio became pros!
