Beginning

Jack was lying in his bed. He couldn't sleep and he was staring at a patch of light on his ceiling. All of a sudden he heard a noise. He listened carefully. There it was again! He slipped out of his bed, put on his dressing gown and tiptoed towards the hallway. The noise was coming from the cupboard on the landing. He slowly edged closer and closer to the door. Taking a deep breath he reached for the door handle. He pulled the door open and...

there was a monster. It was big & green and hairy with purple spots. Jack was terrified. They had only moved in yesterday. He went to tell his big brother (called Sam). Sam did not believe Jack.

Jack wanted to get rid of the monster, but he needed help. He thought the monster would hurt his family. Sam would not help him.

He took a photo of the monster and showed Sam. Sam still did not believe Jack. Suddenly the monster came in. Now I believe you said Sam. Lets shoot him with our bows and arrows said Sam.

Sam and Jack chased the monster down the stairs and round the Garden. The monster ran back up the stairs and into the cupboard. Jack slammed the door shut. Jack and Sam were panting. They felt happy that they had caught the monster. Just then the door opened again. The monster came out holding the arrows. She dropped them at the boys feet and wagged her monster tail. She wants to play with us said Jack. Sam threw a ball the monster chased the ball. Jack and Sam had got a new friend.
